KNOW YOUR LINE NUMBER

Does everyone know their own Line Number with the New Jersey State Firemen's Association?

If not, there are many ways to find your line number.

Contact one of your Local Association Officers.

Contact your County Executive Committee Person.

Contact the State Association Office.

Look on our State Website for more information, www.njsfa.com (click the link here).

If you are not in the Association, any Firefighter of a local Fire Department (as long as the local Fire Department has a Local Relief Association) between the ages of 18-57 are eligible to apply.

The importance of knowing your line number is as important to knowing the benefits offered to each member.

Convention Delegate/Life Member

If a Convention Delegate attends the annual convention as a Local Delegate for five years, nonconsecutive (ten sessions) this will make you a Life Member to the Convention.

Relief – Local/Special/Supplementary

There are three levels of relief that are available. Relief is a temporary solution for any member who has a financial need and meets certain criteria.

Health Care Assistance Reimbursement Program

There are multiple types of Health Care that are for direct medical care of the member to include: In Home Care, Memory Care, Adult Day Care, & Nursing Home Care.

Burial Benefit/Line of Duty Benefit

The Burial Benefit is to ensure that every Firefighter receives a proper Burial.

The Line of Duty Benefit is in addition to the Burial Benefit.

Firemen's Home

Qualified Members have access to the NJ Firemen's Home located in Booton, NJ.
